Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

She is my daughter.

Nisho na ko na po napa.

That close person, one, PRESENT woman from speaker, one.

He is my friend.

Nisho na ko na ki malisho.

That close person, one, PRESENT speaker-associated bonded person.

He is her father.

Wa nisho na che nisho na wo namo.

This close person, one, PRESENT man who is the source of that close person, one.

You have to help me fix it.

Wusho na nu chali ko na peshu ni na.

Close addressee, one, PRESENT NECESSITY help speaker, one, restore that thing, one.

I am in trouble.

Ko na to taka.

Speaker, one, PRESENT in danger / emergency.

You are a traitor!

Wupo na ko lu ki malipo!

Non-close addressee, one, PRESENT our outsider.

Genocide is wrong.

Shapi makuta loka.

People-as-a-group eradication PRESENT wrong.

I cannot kill billions of people.

Ko na cha pe kuta lu naki mali.

Speaker, one, PRESENT NOT CAN kill multiple naki of people.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

The ship is damaged.

Malu lokemi.

Ship PRESENT damaged.

Something hit the ship.

Po waki takupa malu.

Stranger thing hit-PAST ship.

Something is hitting the ship.

Po waki taku malu.

Stranger thing hit ship.

Something is going to hit the ship.

Po waki takupu malu.

Stranger thing hit-FUTURE ship.

I killed her (my mate).

Ko na kutapa ko na ki malisha.

Speaker one kill-PAST speaker one associated mate-person.

You killed my daughter.

Wupo na kutapa ko na po napa.

Non-close addressee one kill-PAST woman from speaker one.

I cannot kill him.

Ko na cha pe kuta nisho na.

Speaker one NOT CAN kill close third person one.

You are right.

Wusho na nelo.

Close addressee one correct.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

They were right.

Nisho lu nelopa.

Close third persons multiple correct-PAST.

I was wrong.

Ko na lokapa.

Speaker one wrong-PAST.

They are evil.

Mashu to nipo lu.

Evil inside non-close third persons multiple.

Breathing smoke is harmful.

Tane tanewa lopi.

Breathe smoke harmful.

The enemy is not evil.

Mashu cha to malipo.

Evil NOT inside outsider-person.

If something happens, I am going to help you.

She po waki pake, ko na chalipu wusho na.

If stranger thing happen, speaker one help-FUTURE close addressee one.

If it hits the ship, it will be destroyed.

She ni na taku malu, wa ni na lakemupu.

If that thing one hit ship, focal thing one destroyed-FUTURE.

Yes / affirmative.

Cho.

Affirmation.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

No / negative.

Cha.

Denial.

The ship is destroyed.

Malu lakemu.

Ship destroyed.

I am going to repair it.

Ko na peshupu ni na.

Speaker one repair-FUTURE third referent one.

A broken terminal.

Mokemi kimela pelo.

Broken computation console.

A functional terminal.

Weli kimela pelo.

Capable computation console.

The terminal is functional but unpowered.

Kimela pelo weli. Ni na cha naweli.

Computation console capable. Third referent one NOT powered.

The terminal is idle.

Kimela pelo paleno.

Computation console idle.

The engine is actively working.

Kama shenu.

Engine working.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

The engine is broken.

Kama mokemi.

Engine broken.

The food is tasty.

Mato shuma.

Food tasty.

They are good by nature.

Wemi to nisho lu.

Goodness inside close third persons multiple.

I am carefully repairing it.

Ko na welu chela peshu ni na.

Speaker one careful MANNER repair third referent one.

We two joined as partners.

Ko mu patapa.

Speaker group two join-PAST.

We two are joined partners.

Ko mu komu.

Speaker group two joined-bond.

I entered you (sexual context).

Ko na tokapa wusho na.

Speaker one enter-PAST close addressee one.

I joined her.

Ko na patapa nisho na.

Speaker one join-PAST close third person one.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

She joined me.

Nisho na patapa ko na.

Close third person one join-PAST speaker one.

You can join parts together.

Wusho na pe pata lu paki.

Close addressee one CAN join multiple parts.

I am eating with her.

Ko na mate wenu nisho na.

Speaker one eat WITH close third person one.

I regularly eat with her.

Ko na nalemi chela mate wenu nisho na.

Speaker one regular MANNER eat WITH close third person one.

I am sitting with her.

Ko na pali wenu nisho na.

Speaker one sit WITH close third person one.

I am coming with her.

Ko na shipo wenu nisho na.

Speaker one come-toward WITH close third person one.

I am eating at the table with her.

Ko na mate to mepalu wenu nisho na.

Speaker one eat at table WITH close third person one.

If you do not repair it quickly, it will explode.

She wusho na cha shuli chela peshu ni na, ni na mokepopu.

If close addressee one NOT quick MANNER repair it one, it one rupture-outward-FUTURE.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

The robot is moving rapidly toward my position.

Mali waki shuli chela lowi ta ko na ki washano.

Person-thing rapid MANNER move toward speaker one associated position.

It is going to implode.

Ni na moketopu.

Third referent one rupture-inward-FUTURE.

My thing.

Ko na ki waki.

Speaker one ASSOCIATION thing.

Your thing (close).

Wusho na ki waki.

Close addressee one ASSOCIATION thing.

Our thing.

Ko lu ki waki.

Speaker group multiple ASSOCIATION thing.

Their thing (close group).

Nisho lu ki waki.

Close third persons multiple ASSOCIATION thing.

His / her thing (close person).

Nisho na ki waki.

Close third person one ASSOCIATION thing.

I think the engine is broken.

Ko na meli wele kama mokemi.

Speaker one THINK THAT engine broken.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

I believe the engine is broken.

Ko na wome wele kama mokemi.

Speaker one BELIEVE THAT engine broken.

I know the engine is broken.

Ko na pisha wele kama mokemi.

Speaker one KNOW THAT engine broken.

It is possible that the engine is broken.

Pe wele kama mokemi.

POSSIBLE THAT engine broken.

I do not believe the engine is running.

Ko na cha wome wele kama shenu.

Speaker one NOT BELIEVE THAT engine running.

I believe the engine is not running.

Ko na wome wele kama cha shenu.

Speaker one BELIEVE THAT engine NOT running.

I know those two close people killed that outside person.

Ko na pisha wele nisho mu kutapa nipo na.

Speaker one KNOW THAT close third persons two kill-PAST outside third person one.

The two components that I repaired are functional.

Mu paki mewa ko na peshupa kume weli.

Two components RELATIVE speaker one repair-PAST END functional.

The engine failed because the temperature was excessive.

Kama moketapa poma kela shakupa.

Engine fail-PAST BECAUSE temperature excessive-PAST.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

I disconnected the engine so those two could repair it.

Ko na kunipa kama lashi nisho mu pe peshu ni na.

Speaker one disconnect-PAST engine PURPOSE close third persons two CAN repair it one.

If I had not disconnected the engine, it would be running now.

Shome ko na cha kunipa kama, ni na shenu nemi.

IMAGINED speaker one NOT disconnect-PAST engine, it one running now.

The coordinates must be entered.

Nu toka lu makiwa.

NECESSITY input multiple coordinates.

You must enter the coordinates.

Wupo na nu toka lu makiwa.

Non-close addressee one NECESSITY input multiple coordinates.

Please enter the coordinates.

Chawi wupo na toka lu makiwa.

REQUEST non-close addressee one input multiple coordinates.

May I have one?

Ko na poli wape na ka?

Speaker one PERMITTED receive one QUESTION.

You are permitted to enter the coordinates.

Wupo na poli toka lu makiwa.

Non-close addressee one PERMITTED input multiple coordinates.

You are able to enter the coordinates.

Wupo na pe toka lu makiwa.

Non-close addressee one CAN input multiple coordinates.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

Enter the coordinates, then engage the engine, then increase speed.

Toka lu makiwa. Pumi pita kama ta shenu. Pumi laku waleno.

Input multiple coordinates. THEN set engine to working. THEN increase speed.

You must enter the coordinates, then engage the engine, then increase speed.

Wupo na nu toka lu makiwa li pumi pita kama ta shenu li pumi laku waleno.

Non-close addressee one NECESSITY input coordinates AND THEN set engine working AND THEN increase speed.

May I come with you for dinner, then stay the night?

Ko na poli shipo wenu wusho na ta shalu mato li pumi toli la shalu ka?

Speaker one PERMITTED come WITH close addressee one for night meal AND THEN stay during night QUESTION.

May I come with you tomorrow for dinner, then stay the night?

Pumi tami ko na poli shipo wenu wusho na ta shalu mato li pumi toli la shalu ka?

Next day speaker one PERMITTED come WITH close addressee one for night meal AND THEN stay during night QUESTION.

Only two people are alive.

Kumi mu mali tale.

ONLY two people alive.

Both people moved one component together.

Ma mu mali wenu chela lowipa na paki.

ALL two people WITH MANNER move-PAST one component.

Each of the two people received a different component.

Washi mu mali wapepa na chome paki.

EACH two people receive-PAST one distinct component.

Some crew members are alive.

Shomi shapi mali tale.

SOME group people alive.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

Not every crew member is a traitor.

Cha wele ma shapi mali ko lu ki malipo.

NOT THAT ALL group people speaker-group associated outsider.

No crew member is a traitor.

Ma shapi mali cha ko lu ki malipo.

ALL group people NOT speaker-group associated outsider.

No people entered.

Mo mali tokapa.

ZERO people enter-PAST.

This generator has less capacity than that generator.

Wa chami molu wimeli mopu che chami.

This generator LESS capacity COMPARED-WITH that generator.

The generators have equal capacity.

Wa chami woli wimeli mopu che chami.

This generator EQUAL capacity COMPARED-WITH that generator.

There is enough light for me to see.

Kewi pani lashi ko na pila.

Light ADEQUATE PURPOSE speaker one see.

The engine is too damaged to repair.

Kama shaku lokemi lashi peshu ni na.

Engine EXCESSIVE damaged FOR-GOAL repair it one.

The stored supply is almost zero.

Kemu kami mo.

Stored supply ALMOST zero.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

More than two components are damaged.

Lako mopu mu paki lokemi.

MORE COMPARED-WITH two components damaged.

How many people are alive?

Ke maki mali tale?

WHAT count people alive?

She is still alive.

Nisho na wama tale.

Close third person one STILL alive.

The engine is already running.

Kama wumi shenu.

Engine ALREADY running.

The engine has not failed yet.

Kama cha moketapa tame.

Engine NOT fail-PAST YET.

She was alive until yesterday.

Nisho na talepa temi pami tami.

Close third person one alive-PAST UNTIL previous day.

The engine is still running since yesterday.

Kama wama shenu nape pami tami.

Engine STILL running SINCE previous day.

Stay until the engine is running.

Toli temi kama shenu.

Stay UNTIL engine running.

Translations in Nalesha

Bare predicate = ongoing present; -pa = ended past; -pu = expected near future. One glyph per syllable; pronouns do not mark gender.

Two close people.

Nisho mu.

Close third persons TWO.

One close person labeled 2.

Nisho na nami mu.

Close third person ONE ID two.

The two-person outside group labeled 3.

Nipo mu nami shi.

Outside third persons TWO ID three.

Person 1 reported to person 2 that person 3 killed person 4.

Nisho na nami na pishipa ta nisho na nami mu wele nipo na nami shi kutapa nisho na nami le.

Close one ID 1 reported TO close one ID 2 THAT outside one ID 3 killed close one ID 4.

The thing belonging to the outside person labeled 3.

Nipo na nami shi ki waki.

Outside person ONE ID 3 ASSOCIATION thing.